This Month

In 1902, President Theodore Roosevelt choose to protect a bear while hunting and it was referred to as Teddy's Bear.

Teddy Bears became a cultural phenomenon after President Roosevelt popularized them, sparking a trend that swept the nation.

In 1907, an American musician created an instrumental, “The Teddy Bears’ Picnic”, and years later a British songwriter wrote its lyrics.

In the 1980s as a result of trending “Teddy Bears’ Picnic” themed birthday parties, parents and schools pushed for the creation of a holiday.
