Answer key: Pi printable activities

For the two printable classroom versions of articles from The Conversation. The word hunt sheets need no key: every word in each word bank appears in its article, in the order listed, so students circle each one as they find it.

Article 1: Timeline fill-in

| Blank | Answer | Where students find it in the article |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Babylon | “Historical pi” section |
| 2 | Egypt | “Historical pi” section |
| 3 | 3.1605 | “Historical pi” section |
| 4 | 1702 | “An irrational bonus” section |
| 5 | navigation | “An irrational bonus” section |
| 6 | π | “An irrational bonus” section |
| 7 | 314,159,265 | “There’s never enough” section |
| 8 | Pi | First paragraph |

Do the math. 1650 B.C. to A.D. 1702 is 3,351 years (there is no year 0). Accept about 3,350. 1702 to 2012 is 310 years.

Article 2: Mini crossword

Across

4. Diameter

6. Ratio

7. Polygon

Down

1. Calculus

2. Area

3. Radius

5. Digit

6. Random

7. Proof